

Conference Papers and Presentations

“Copyright and the Challenge of Multimedia in the Contemporary European Context,” Multimedia and Copyright Conference, London College of Printing, Queen Elizabeth Conference Hall, Westminster, London, May 1993.

“The Future of Legal Education in Scotland; The European Challenge,” Paper presented at the Scottish Law Teachers Association Conference, Glasgow Caledonian University, September 1993.

“EC Film Law,” Paper presented at the Scottish Law Teachers Conference, Robert Gordon University, Aberdeen, September 1994.

“TQM and Law. Threat or Opportunity in the EC Arena,” Lecture at Law School, University of Paisley, June 1995.

“The Use of Video in Teaching Law in European Networks,” Presentation to ERASMUS-ICP Meeting, funded under program, University of Zaragoza, Spain, June 1996.

“The EU, Free Movement and Aboriginal Peoples,” Paper delivered at the Aboriginal Peoples Conference, Lakehead University, Thunder Bay, Ontario, Canada, October 1996.

“Communications Technology and Legal Education at a Future Aboriginal University,” Paper delivered to the BILETA Conference, University of Durham, March 1997.

“The Digital Re-Mastering of Jurisdiction, or Opportunity for a New Paradigm in Law,” Paper presented at BILETA Conference, Dublin, Ireland, March 1998.

“EU Competition Law and the Legal Profession in Scotland,” Paper presented at the Scottish Law Faculties Conference at Pitlochry, April 1998.

“Culture and the Law in Europe,” Lecture at UACES Workshop, City University, London, April 1998.

“The Present and Future Development of New Regional Legal Bodies for Africa,” Paper presented at the Africa and Globalisation Conference University of Central Lancashire, April 1998.

“The Legal Concept of Culture in Relation to Travel and Tourism,” Paper presented at the IFTTA (International Federation of Travel and Tourism Lawyers) Annual Conference, Istanbul, Turkey, May 1998.

“Video-Conferencing. The Students Perspective,” Chair of Video-Conference Group at Abertay, Talisman/Coshep Video Conferencing Training, May 1998.

“The Need for Strategic Awareness of EU Law for HTSFs,” University of Twente and Manchester Business School, High Technology Small Firms Conference, Enschede, Netherlands, June 1998.

“Anticipating the Strategic Role of EU Law in the Development of Communications Technology in a Fragile Natural World.” Paper presented at the World of Information Conference, Finnish Forestry Institute, Rovaniemi, Finland, June 1998.

Chair of Panel UACES Research Conference on Emergence of New Legal Thinking in the EU at University of Sheffield, October, 1998. Paper presented on “Opportunity for New Legal Thinking in the EU.”

“Law in the Psychiatrists Chair.” Interview with Professor Anthony Clare, St. Patricks Hospital, Dublin, January 1999.

“The Legal Empowerment of Local Communities in Relation to Heritage Sites,” Conference Presentation World of Archaeological Wonder Conference on The Empowerment of Local Communities in Relation to Heritage Sites, Borobodur Temple, Yogyakarta, Central Java, Indonesia, February 1999.

“The Need for Electronic Journals to Promote Critical Legal Studies.” Campbell and Tunney, National Critical Lawyers Conference, Manchester, March 1999.

“The Reflexive Role of Cyberspace in the Shape of Law to Come,” BILETA Conference, Crime, Criminal Justice and the Internet, York, March 1999.

“Mabo,” Paper presented at the Conference on Great Cases of the Twentieth Century, Irish Association of Law Teachers (IALT), Killarney, Ireland, April 1999.

“A Critique, A Prediction and A Paradigm for Future Systems of Criminal Law,” Paper presented at The Future and Criminology, Annual Conference of Australia and New Zealand Criminology, University of Western Australia, Perth, Australia, September 1999.

“Tourists-Keep Out! The Power to Exclude Tourists.” Paper presented at the Annual Meeting of the IFTTA, S’ Hertonbosch, Netherlands, October 1999.

“The Future Convergence of Legal Concepts in the Age of Cyberspace,” Paper presented at the 1st Asia-Pacific Conference on Cyberlaw, Putrajaya, Malaysia, November 1999.

“The Limitations of the EU as a Legal Model for Regional Governance,” Paper presented to the International Political Science Union Research Meeting on European Integration, European Parliament Building, Brussels, Belgium, December 1999.

“The Problematic Role of Lawyers in the Creativity and Innovation Process,” Paper presented at the Fit for the Future Conference, European Association of Creativity and Innovation, Enschede, Netherlands, December 1999.

“The Justice in ‘The Field’,” Paper presented at the Multi-Ethnic Literatures of the US, MELUS 2000 Conference, Tulane University, New Orleans, United States, March 2000.

“The Legal Concept of Culture in the EU,” UACES, Central European University, Budapest, Hungary, April 2000.

“The Myth of the Holy Grail of Quality in Legal Education,” ALT Conference, Cardiff, Wales, April 2000.

“EU-E Law, Lao Tzu, and Law Teachers in the CT Age,” BILETA, Coventry, England, April 2000.

“Explorations in Ulster-American Legal Heritage,” Paper presented at Ulster American Symposium, Omagh, Northern Ireland, June 2000.

“Has The Legal Academy Lost IP,” Paper presented at the Intellectual Property Teachers Workshop, Hart Workshop, Institute of Advanced Legal Studies, London, June 2000.

“The Failure to Focus on Functionality by Legal Educators and Human Rights Failures,” Howard League Annual Conference, Oxford, England, September 2000.

“Image, Identity and the State,” Paper presented at the Image into Identity Conference, Hull University, September 2000.

“The Reflexive relationship between Computer Games Technology and the Law,” BILETA Conference, Edinburgh University, April 2001.

“The Use of Computer Games in IP Teaching,” IP Teachers Forum, University of Warwick, June 2001.

“The Need for New Paradigms in the Teaching of Law,” Institute of Advanced Legal Studies, London, June 2001.

“The Role of Law in International Language Teaching Collaboration,” Berlin, Germany, June 2001.

“Tourism and Culture,” IFTTA Conference, Dudhope Castle, Dundee, July 2001.

“The Neglected Tension between the Disclosure of Information in the Consumer and Competition Law Contexts,” Society of Public Lawyers Conference, Nottingham, July 2001.

“CT Law as a Paradigm for the evolution of Small States,” Small States Conference, University of Gothenburg, Sweden, September 2001.

“Fashioning Bridges: Lessons from Approaching the Study of the Person in the Hybrid System of Scots law,” Paper presented at the Annual IALT Conference, Dublin, October 2001.

“Contemporary Trends in Liability; Terrorism, Hotel Security and DVT,” Universal Federation of Travel and Tourist Agents Congress Tunis, Tunisia, January 2001.

“The Challenge to the Travel Agent,” Guest Speaker of FIAVET, Milan, Italy, February 2002.

“The Creative Industries and World Trade Law,” Creative Industries Conference, Edinburgh, March 2002.

“The Need to Integrate Legal Considerations into Information Management Systems,” Presented at Information Resources Management Association, Seattle, USA, June 2002.

“Moonshine Across the Sea; A Comparison of legal and Illegal Distillation of Alcohol in the Americas and Ulster,” Ulster American Historical Association, Rock Hill, South Carolina, USA, July 2002.

“World Heritage and World Trade Law,” Politics of World Heritage Convention, Canonbury Academy, September, London, September 2002.

“World Trade Law and Sustainability after Doha. Myth of Miracle.” Europe, Globalisation and Sustainable Development Conference, Dundee University, September 2002.

“World Trade Law and World Heritage,” Law, Culture and Humanities Conference, New York University, US, March 2003.

“The Need for an Holistic Approach to Models of Traveller and Tourism Protection in Law.” IFTTA-UFTTA Joint Seminar, Columbus Hotel, Monaco, June 2003.

“The Ghost Host Community in Travel law,” Global frameworks and local realities: social and cultural identities in making and consuming tourism, University of Brighton, Eastbourne, September 2003.

“The Rule of Law as a Public Good in Regional Contexts,” Bruges UNU-CRIS Conference of Regional Organisations and Public Goods, November 2003.

“Does culture, competition and communications technology point to cosmopolitanism?” IALT Conference, ‘New Legal Thinking,’ Derry, April 2004.

“The Need to Manage IP,” University of Limerick. Ireland, April 2004.

“A Pragmatic Response to the Future of Chinese Competition Law,” Keynote Speech, Chinese Academy of Social Sciences and Beijing High Court Conference on China and Competition law, Judges Training Centre, Hairou, Beijing, China, May 2004.

“World Trade and Indigenous Knowledge,” Transforming the Academy, Penn State University, Pennsylvania, US, May 2004.

“Pragmatic Cosmopolitan Method in CT and World Trade,” Bileta Annual Conference Belfast, April 2005.

“Pragmatic Cosmopolitan Method in Law,” Rethinking European Spaces Royal Holloway, London, April 2005.

“Pragmatic cosmopolitan method and IP,” IP Law Teachers Forum, Cambridge, May 2005.

“Some Reflection on IP Teaching and Experience,” Patent Office October 2005.

“Pragmatic Cosmopolitanism: A model for Travel and Tourism”, Keynote Speech UFTTA Congress, Kathmandu, Nepal, 2009.